Mystery Short Story Writing Contest

The Library invites young writers to enter our March Break Mystery Short Story Contest.

- The short story must begin with the line, “I took a book from the library shelf and noticed that there was something stuck on the shelf behind it.”
- The short story can be no more than two pages long
- It must be accompanied by this entry form.
- Our distinguished panel of judges will select winning entries from four categories: JK to SK, Grades 1 to 3, Grades 4 to 6, and Best of Contest.
- All winning entries will be published on the Library's website.
- Contest ends at 5:00 p.m. on Friday, March 14th.
- To submit your entry you may drop it off at your local library branch or email it to kids@picnet.org.
