OUR PROMISE TO YOU

The Library is convenient and accessible.

- We have convenient hours of operation.
- We make the library easy to use.
- We have facilities that are physically accessible, comfortable, clean and safe.
- We aim to be available anytime, anyplace.

Hours reflect patterns of use.

At least one location will regularly be open Sundays.

Evening and weekend service is a priority.

We have staff available to assist you.

Collections are browsable and clearly labeled.

We simplify our procedures so they are easy for clients to understand.

For those who want to serve themselves, signage and instructional guides are provided to help you.

Our website meets accessibility standards.

We have spaces to meet your individual or group needs including quiet study rooms, comfortable seating areas, room rentals, and group study areas.

We have staff dedicated to ensuring that we adhere to standards of accessibility. We are trained to handle emergencies. We make sure our facilities are clean and in good repair.

We have a Personal Conduct Policy for client library use. (<http://www.picnet.org/node/196>)

We bring the library to the community through programming, home visits, and special events. We have online and mobile services available 24/7.

Our staffing levels will reflect client patterns of use.

OUR PROMISE TO YOU

We work at connecting.

- We build relationships to ensure that your library experience is positive.

We try to grow relationships with members of our community.

- We build partnerships with outside agencies and community groups.
- We continuously work to understand the community so that our services meet the needs of the community.

We understand that every situation is unique and we will do our best to accommodate our clients' needs.

We solve problems as quickly as possible. We handle complaints with dignity, poise and an open mind.

We co-sponsor programs.

We welcome feedback and review all comments, complaints and suggestions. We conduct surveys to understand how we can serve our community better.

We undertake a continuous analysis of the community, our materials, programs and staffing to ensure that we make changes to our services.

OUR PROMISE TO YOU

We share.

- We are passionate about what we do and we share our knowledge, experiences, collections, ideas and programs.
- We support you in the use of the library, including the latest technology.

We respond quickly to requests for help and we offer relevant information when interacting with our clients.

When appropriate, we will refer you to outside organizations and agencies that can answer your question.

We will recommend material for you that matches your needs and interests.

We develop programs that are of interest to our clients.

We offer print and online resources to keep you informed of our services, collections and programs.

We explore new ideas and adopt change to enhance service to our clients.

We have trained staff to assist you with your technology needs.

- We will work with you to solve problems or inform you of options.

We find the answers to your questions in the library, on-line or in the community. If we cannot solve your problem, we will attempt to find someone who can.

We will be flexible and creative in solving problems and provide solutions in a calm and resourceful manner.

We are responsive.

- Staff have the necessary skills to assist you.
- We will respond in a timely manner.

We have trained staff available to answer your questions. Many staff have special knowledge, skills and responsibilities. If they are not available to assist you, we will take your contact information and have a staff member follow up with you.

We will acknowledge receipt of your email to help@picnet.org and circ@picnet.org within one business day.

In person, we will serve clients on a first come, first-served basis and when possible will engage additional staff.

If you require extended or special service, we can book an appointment for you.

We can answer most inquiries immediately. If we need additional time to respond, we will tell you when you can expect an answer.

We communicate.

- We use clear, accessible language.
- Our public policies are conveniently available.
- We are receptive to feedback.

We use language that is easy to understand verbally and in publications. We use common symbols to depict services.

We can explain library policies and procedures.

Our public policies are available on the library website at www.picnet.org and available in print form.

OUR PROMISE TO YOU

We welcome all comments and consider all suggestions.
If you indicate that you wish to be contacted about your comment or concern, we will do so.

How You Can Help Us

- Inform us if you have any special needs so we can accommodate them.
- Treat our staff and other clients with courtesy and respect.
- Be aware that we have Public Policies to govern library operations. These are available at: <http://www.picnet.org/node/196>
- Let us know when we do not meet these Service Standards. We will investigate and inform you of how it has been corrected.
- Whenever you have advice, suggestions and ideas on how our services can be improved, please let us know.

We will be pleased to hear from you because your satisfaction is our success.
