Accessible Employment Standards

In accordance with the Employment Standard set forth under the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act, 2005, the Library shall follow the principles of dignity, independence, integration and equal opportunity by addressing the following:

- 05.01 Recruitment, Assessment and Selection
The Library will notify employees and the public about the availability of accommodations during the recruitment process. Suitable accommodations will take into account the applicant's accessibility needs due to a disability. Employees will be notified upon hire of the Library's policy to accommodate employees with disabilities and will be provided with updated information whenever there is a change to accessibility policies.
- 05.02 Accessible Formats and Communication Supports for Employees
Where an employee with a disability so requests it, the Library must provide or arrange for the provision of accessible formats and communication supports for the following:
 - 05.02.1 information needed in order to perform their job; and
 - 05.02.2 information that is generally available to all employees in the workplace.

05.03 Workplace Emergency Response Information

The Library shall provide individualized workplace emergency response information to employees who have a disability, if the disability is such that the individualized information is necessary, and the employer is aware of the need for accommodation due to the employee's disability. The Library shall provide the workplace emergency response information to the person designated by the employer to provide assistance to the employee. This information shall be reviewed:

05.03.1 when the employee moves to a different location;

05.03.2 when the employee's overall accommodations needs or plans are reviewed; and

05.03.3 when the employer reviews its general emergency response policies.

- 10.01 In accordance with the administrative requirements set out in the Municipal Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy 1990 Act (MFIPPA), all recruitment and selection related data is to be retained in the People and Culture Department, or under custody and control of the City Clerk.

 - 10.02 Upon completion of the interview process, interview panel members are required to return all documentation contained within the interview package to the People and Culture Department for central filing. Documentation related to the interview and selection process will be retained within the People and Culture Department for a period of four years.

Nepotism

- 11.01 The Pickering Public Library recognizes that all qualified individuals should be provided with the opportunity to be considered for employment and that family relationships should not unduly or unfairly restrict an individual's right to seek employment opportunities. The fact that a potential employee is related to an existing employee should neither prejudice nor advance that person's hiring opportunities.
- 11.02 Any attempts at interference, undue influence or coercion relating to employment shall be reported immediately to the CEO for investigation.
- 11.03 The hiring of immediate family or immediate relatives of employees is not appropriate in situations where the related employees would be in a direct reporting relationship. Given the small size of the Library workforce, it may be necessary to assess the level of the position applied for and possible future impacts related to supervision.
- 11.04 Members of immediate family or immediate relatives shall not participate in the recruitment, promotion or selection process where a candidate is an immediate family or immediate relative.

Driver's Licence

Where a position requires a valid driver's licence, the following guidelines will apply.

- 12.01 The Library will determine all jobs within the Library where the ability to drive is an essential requirement of the position. This requirement will be identified in the job description.
- 12.02 Individuals in positions that require the ability to drive a Library vehicle will be required to sign a Driver's Abstract Consent Form and provide a copy of a valid Ontario Driver's Licence of the correct class for the vehicle to be driven, after a conditional offer of employment has been made.
- 12.03 The City's MTO Signing Authority will arrange to have a semi-annual driver abstract search undertaken for all employees who operate City vehicle and equipment
- 12.04 Individuals in positions that require the ability to drive a personal vehicle shall complete a Contract for Personal Vehicle Use form and Confirmation of Liability Insurance Coverage form only after a conditional offer of employment has been made.

Contract Staff

13.01 Guidelines

- a) Individuals may be hired on an employment contract basis to perform specific functions for a specified period of time. Establishment of such contracts shall not violate the provisions of the Library's Collective Agreement.
- b) Benefits will be provided to contract individuals in accordance with governing legislation. Additional benefits may be provided as negotiated between the respective parties.
- c) Contracting of individuals shall be undertaken within the constraints of departmental budgets or other approved funding and will be subject to the approval of the CEO.
- d) Each contract is subject to such terms and conditions as may be negotiated between the Library and the individual contractor.
- e) Contracts will be prepared by the People and Culture Department in accordance with established format and procedures.

13.02 Recruitment Consultants

- a) The Library recognizes that it may be necessary to rely on the services of outside management consultants to assist in the identification and referral of applicants for certain positions. Outside consultants may be retained by the Library for:
 - i. senior managerial positions, including the CEO, where it has been determined that a consultant may be better able to attract well-qualified applicants; and
 - ii. professional or specialized technical positions where it has been determined that suitably qualified applicants with specialized skills cannot be attracted by more conventional and traditional approaches to recruitment.
- b) Use of consultants will be subject to review and approval of the CEO and Purchasing Policy. If recruiting is for the position of CEO, the Board or its designated representatives will be responsible for coordinating the selection and retention of outside consultants and for liaison during the recruitment and selection process.

Relocation Assistance

- 14.01 Relocation assistance ensures that a qualified applicant will not be prevented from accepting employment with the Library because of the expense of relocation when (see Relocation Expense Service Agreement form HUR 040 Appendix 5):
- a) the position is a key position for which there is no suitably qualified individual available within the City of Pickering or in the immediate vicinity;
 - b) it is mandatory that the position be filled as quickly as possible; and
 - c) the Director recommends, and the CEO concurs, that such recruitment incentive is appropriate in the specific circumstances.
- 14.02 The Library may assist newly appointed non-resident employees with relocation assistance upon written acceptance of an offer of employment.
- 14.03 The Library will recover on a pro-rata basis, any relocation assistance paid to an employee who resigns or is terminated from employment for just cause within twenty-four (24) months of commencement of employment. Relocation assistance may include both moving expenses and relocation expenses.

Probationary/Trial Periods

- 15.01 The City of Pickering Public Library recognizes the importance of a period of evaluation for employees appointed to positions as a result of competition, promotion or transfer. Permanent appointments to all positions within the Library shall be subject to satisfactory performance during the probationary/trial period.
- 15.02 Unionized employees will serve a probationary/trial period in accordance with the provisions of the Library's Collective Agreement with its unionized employees.
- 15.03 The standard probationary/trial period for non-union employees of the Library shall be six working months. Any single period of absence during the probationary period in excess of 5 working days, for any reason, shall be added to the probationary period.

Criminal Reference Check & Vulnerable Sector Screening

16.01 The Library recognizes the importance of ensuring the personal safety and well-being of its employees and the safety and well-being of those members of the community who are receiving services. The Library will undertake a Criminal Reference Check for all full-time and part-time volunteers, existing employees who have applied successfully and external applicants who will, as a result of their positions, meet one or a combination of the following criteria:

16.01.1 employees who occupy a position of trust, financial or otherwise. Otherwise is defined as the level of authority, importance of contacts, impact on the Library's image/reputation, and access to confidential/privileged information with the ability to control or manipulate data;

16.01.2 employees who are required to enter private residences on a regular basis;

16.01.3 all levels of management; and

16.01.4 employees who as part of their job requirements, work directly and interact with the vulnerable sector will form the basis for a Vulnerable Sector Screening.

16.02 Guidelines

Criminal Reference Checks Vulnerable Sector Screenings shall be carried out in accordance with the Ontario Human Rights Code. The Code prohibits discrimination on the basis of a person's record of offenses which is defined as:

16.02.1 an offense in respect of which a pardon has been granted under the

Criminal Records Act and has not been revoked; and · 16.02.2 An offense in respect of any provincial enactment.

A record of offenses does not include a conviction under the Criminal Code, Narcotics Control Act, Food and Drug Act or Federal Criminal Enactment for which a pardon has not been granted or for which a pardon has been granted and revoked.

This policy will be supported with a detailed operating procedure which will address the actionable items of those directly involved in recruitment and their respective responsibilities.
